GIUSEPPE CAFIERO, NEW PARTNER APPOINTED AT WILDGEN

Luxembourg, 06 September 2021 – The Luxembourg business law firm, Wildgen, continues its expansion and announces the co-option of Giuseppe Cafiero as new partner. As specialist in banking and finance law, insurance and reinsurance, he will assume his new duties as from this September.

Member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2011, Giuseppe started his career at Wildgen in the same year. He joined Michel Bulach's team and specialised in banking and finance law, insurance and reinsurance. He assists financial institutions, insurance and reinsurance companies and their clients on both regulatory and transactional aspects.

In banking and finance, he works on all types of credit, investment, debt restructuring and structured finance transactions. His practice particularly focuses on securitisation transactions and investments in European credit markets (NPLs).

As for the (re)insurance sector, in addition to regulatory aspects, his practice is particularly focused on M&A and portfolio transfer transactions.

Michel Bulach, Partner and Head of the Banking & Finance team, comments. „Giuseppe is an excellent example of the professional growth and development valued by our firm. During his 10 years with the firm, he has secured the trust of our clients on complex and sensitive transactions, by combining integrity, pugnacity and technicality. Our ambition has always been to provide a high level of expertise combined with a tailor-made service and Giuseppe can safely guarantee this. We are proud to count him among our partners now.“

Giuseppe, who advises prestigious local and international clients, explains his ambition. „As a new partner, I very much want to develop a portfolio of European clients, especially Italian ones. In that respect, I see my Italian roots as a source of strength and added value that I look forward to devoting to these clients by offering them assistance in Luxembourg law in their mother tongue.“
