

Member News

LUXAIRTOURS IS TO WELCOME ITS FIRST TRAVELLERS IN FARO AS OF 31 MAY

Following Luxair Luxembourg Airlines' lead, LuxairTours is to resume its services very soon

In addition to Stockholm, Lisbon, Porto, Hamburg, and Munich, the 5 destinations already on offer and due to be operated as of the Pentecost weekend.

Luxair and LuxairTours have been galvanised to extend their range of holidays by their customers' show of faith once the resumption of flights was announced and their desire to resume services. Restrictions have been eased in the Algarve region in Portugal, which therefore means LuxairTours can start selling hotel & flight packages in Faro.

The first departures to Faro will commence on 31 May and 07 June 2020.

Several hotels have been carefully selected for the first breaks on offer that meet all LuxairTours' health requirements. LuxairTours has established extra health standards, which partner hotels have agreed to observe that go beyond the strict guidelines and restrictions imposed by the local authorities.

Information and bookings for flight-only or package holidays on www.luxairtours.lu.

Luxair and LuxairTours will progressively continue to operate new destinations, in the strictest compliance with health measures imposed by local authorities and standards set by the Group.