ANOUK FELGEN

DESCRIPTION

As admitted lawyer to the Paris Bar for 30 years and the Luxembourg Bar for 8 years, I specialize in industrial risk, construction law, and energy law. An expert in the energy sector for over 20 years, I advise and represent national and international stakeholders in renewable energy (wind, solar, biomass/biogas, hydropower, geothermal), low-carbon hydrogen, and energy storage, providing both litigation and advisory services to address issues that may arise at any stage of their projects.
