SOURCE UP S.À R.L.

DESCRIPTION

Source Up is a facilitator and aggregator of services and expertise around cross-functional and human skills. The objective is to support the transformation of the job market by offering to identify and recruit talent and develop skills so that employees and companies remain agile and efficient. Our belief is that we can build a new work experience that is more human, more engaging and more connected. We bring this ambition to life through various services, namely: * International Sourcing & Recruitment * Career Coaching * Training * Assessment (Technical & Soft Skills) * Outplacement
