KOUROS S.A.

DESCRIPTION

Achieving climate neutrality by replacing fossil fuels with renewable energy and removing carbon from the atmosphere. Kouros was created in 2016 with a clear objective: to support the necessary energy transition. Kouros is developing an approach bringing together technology and uses, thus enabling the removal of technological barriers, while developing the necessary infrastructures. Kouros follows a unique business model: it is both an active investor in established companies and an entrepreneur developing its own projects, supporting production facilities, transport and the distribution of renewable energies as well as the promotion of cutting-edge technologies.
