CALL FOR ENTRIES

Faithful to its commitment to innovation, FEDIL is launching the call for applications for its Innovation Award 2024. By organising this prize, FEDIL wishes to encourage creativity, innovation and research in companies. The prize rewards innovators and researchers working for companies as well as independent innovators and young researchers.

The projects submitted must stand out for their innovative and original character, while being of interest to the Luxembourg economy.

The rules and the application form can be consulted and downloaded below. Applications must be submitted before 12 July 2024. The jury, composed of experts from the public and private sectors, will announce the winners of the 2024 Innovation Award in autumn 2024.
